

Lunau & Sund - biography 2018

Lunau & Sund's songwriting is inspired by a beautiful mix of Nordic hymns and songs mixed with folk and Americana. You could call the style Nordicana.

Live/tours

Trine Lunau (vocal, accordion) and Peter Sund (guitars, vocal) have been playing together and writing music for 17 years. Their synergy and connection are second to none. Their concerts are built up around their voices and guitar and the music is supported by humorous tales and anecdotes about the duo's life and their sources of creative inspiration.

Lunau & Sund also plays selected concerts with their band, a "All star musician" line up including legendary keyboard and organ player Palle Hjorth, bass player Bo Gryholdt and drummer Peter Dombernowsky.

Lunau & Sund has for many years been playing concerts in Denmark. They have since 2016 extensively been working on building an audience in Sweden. This has resulted in several tours in Sweden, the latest in March/April of 2018.

In addition to Sweden, several other European countries have been visited in recent years, such as Germany, Estonia, Greece, Switzerland and Italy

Lunau&Sund have released five albums:

Reviews:

"Dejlig udgivelse. Smukt og ukrukket sangforedrag, varmt og velklingende guitar-spil og meget "varm produktion", hvad den overordnede lyd angår."
Jørgen Bøgen, Journalist og studievært, DR P5

"...en lille perle af et album. Afdæmpet, oprigtig, vedkommende og djævelsk godt sunget er de 11 sange... Ikke kun engle vil danse, de lytter til Lunau&Sunds mere end lovende debutudspil...."
 Simon Staun - Fyens Stiftidende

"Det er en sjælden slags plade, Lunau&Sund debutterer med. Så drømmende og så fuld af symbolik, og dog ikke tung og verdensfjern at dykke ind i. Trine Lunaus glasklare stemme er en fornøjelse...."
Ole Sørensen - Jyske Vestkysten
