Lunau&Sund – BIO 2025

Bio

Lunau&Sund is a Danish duo blending folk, indie pop, and singer-songwriter traditions, rooted in Nordic songwriting and sound. Their music is characterized by intimacy, authenticity, and poetic depth.

Lunau&Sund consists of Trine Lunau (vocals, piano, accordion) and Peter Sund (guitar, vocals, production).

In 2024, the duo released their 8th studio album Kun i det blå, continuing their signature blend of acoustic textures and meaningful lyrics. Their songs have received airplay on Danish national radio DR P4 and P5 — including the track “Medvind,” which spent ten weeks on the Danish charts.

In the spring of 2026, Lunau&Sund will release their 9th album Sonet Sange — a collection of ten songs inspired by the sonnets of William Shakespeare.

Lunau&Sund collaborates with the American label Putumayo, which has released “En seng af guld” and “Solsort” on international compilations. In 2025, they also released the song “Jorden Drejer” on the album Scandinavia.
